Hazardous Weather

Wildfire Risk Today

Please use caution with any outdoor activities which could produce sparks or flames

Weather Forecast Office
Amarillo, TX
Issued Apr 20, 2022 3:39 AM CDT

Critical fire weather conditions expected for the southwestern and south-central Texas Panhandle today. Dry fuels with low relative humidity values and gusty winds will result in critical fire weather concerns.

Mostly Sunny, Breezy, and very Warm Today

temperatures may approach record highs for Lubbock and Childress

Weather Forecast Office
Lubbock, TX
Issued Apr 20, 2022 2:44 AM CDT

Today will be very warm and dry with breezy west to southwest winds. Highs today will be upper 80s to lower 90s on the Caprock and mid to upper 90s across the Rolling Plains. Record highs of 93 at Lubbock and 98 at Childress could be approached. These conditions also will lead to elevated to critical fire danger.

Hazardous Weather

Red Flag Warning Today

For Critical Fire Weather Conditions

Weather Forecast Office
Lubbock, TX

Issued Apr 20, 2022 2:33 AM CDT

A Red Flag Warning is in effect today for most of the South Plains and extreme southern Texas Panhandle as well as adjacent parts of the northern Rolling Plains. Very warm and dry conditions will combine with west to southwest breezes to cause Critical Fire Danger. Elevated Fire Danger will occur from the eastern South Plains into the remainder of the Rolling Plains today.

Elevated Fire Weather Concerns Today

Minimum Relative Humidity Values

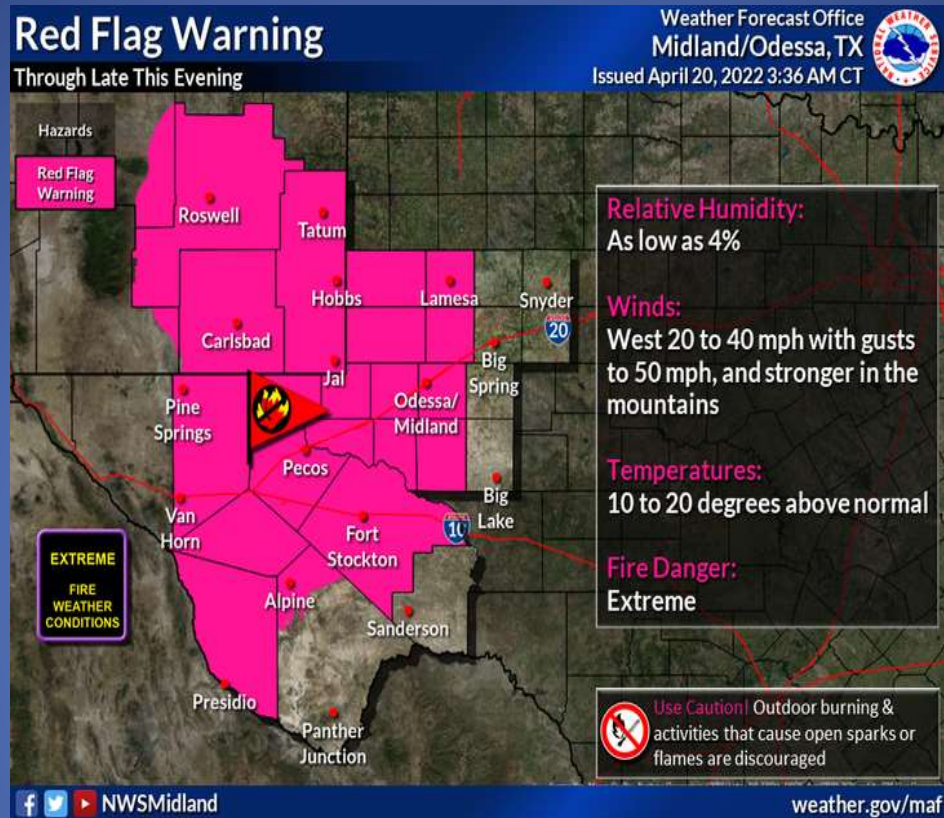

Weather Forecast Office
San Angelo, TX

Issued Apr 20, 2022 4:10 AM CDT

Dry, hot, and windy conditions are expected this afternoon and into the early evening for our western-most counties, leading to elevated Fire Weather concerns.

Hazardous Weather

Record hot temperatures, windy, and continued very dry conditions will yield critical to extreme fire weather conditions today across Southeast New Mexico and most of West Texas. Any fire that starts will have the potential grow and spread quickly out of control, so be sure to avoid any activity that could create a flame or spark, and if you see smoke or a fire, report it immediately!
